wolves begin to teach him how to hunt animals like rabbits and how to get the meat inside by your teeth, of course that Zac don't have big, sharp teeth like the wolves so instead of teeth, he used his hands. When it is breakfast time, the wolves give Zac a piece of meat but Zac can't eat it because there are germs, dirt on it plus it tastes disgusting so he brought it to the river, washed the dirt and eat it with the crackers he brought. Suddenly, a big howl came from the north and it's the tigers! The wolves formed a small group of three to fight one tiger because there are more wolves than tigers and tigers are stronger, so at last the wolves win and the tiger meat will be for lunch. Suddenly, Zac heard a voice that said: "we won!" Zac ran back to the city and everyone are holding up flags that says: "we won." Zac ran up to a person and asked: "why is everyone so happy?"
